POSH POLICY

Prevention of Sexual Harassment and Complaint Procedure

Transact specifically prohibits workplace sexual harassment. Workplace or work related sexual harassment of employees is unlawful and will not be tolerated. To achieve our goal of providing a workplace free from sexual harassment, we have included in this policy definitions and examples of conduct which will not be tolerated and have provided a procedure by which employees who believe they have encountered sexual harassment can formally complain. As Transact takes sexual harassment seriously, we will respond promptly to complaints of sexual harassment by conducting an investigation and, where it is determined that such inappropriate conduct has occurred, we will act promptly to eliminate the conduct and impose such corrective action as is necessary.

SERVICE RULES – CONFIDENTIALITY – POSH COMPLIANCE @ TRANSACT

TGSR VER 2

1.1 Definition of Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is any unwanted, unwelcome or uninvited behaviour of a sexual nature which makes a person feel humiliated, intimidated or offended. Sexual harassment can take many different forms and may include physical contact, verbal comments, jokes, propositions, the displaying of offensive material or other behaviour which creates a sexually tense or hostile working environment.

All employees have a responsibility to:

- Comply with the organization's sexual harassment policy.
- Offer support to anyone who is being harassed and let them know where they can get help and advice.
- Maintain complete confidentiality if they provide information during the investigation of a complaint
